

Dieabolus Rules

Diabolus is defined as simply “devil”. When used within words for example “Diabolus in Music” it would roughly translate into “The Devil in the Music”. So we decided to make a play on this word and transform it to “The Devil’s in the Dice” or simply “Dieabolus.

Dieabolus is intended to be played with 3-6 players. Any more than that and your risking a sprained wrist.

To play you will need a few things.

Three dice. Two matching colored and one off colored. We recommend 2 x black dice with red pips, and 1 x red dice with black pips. The odd dice is your Dieabolus. When the Dieabolus rolls a 1, bad things happen.

You will need paper to score game points and rounds points, pencil to write with, and a 1 minute timer. A pile of Punishment cards and Decimate cards. You can find those to print and cut below.

The object of the game is to be the first person to score 6 game points, to get game points you must win a round by rolling three 6’s.

Game points = what your trying to get.
Round points = when you roll 3 x 6’s

During your turn, you roll all three dice, if a 6 is rolled, you put it aside and roll the remaining dice to try to get another 6. Keep this up until you do not roll a 6, then score your points and pass the dice.

If you roll a 1 on the Dieabolus, you must stop and draw a Punishment and do whatever it says no matter how silly, gross or childish it may seem. Its even better when your scared to do it

If you roll a 1 on the Dieabolus yet also roll a 6, they cancel each other out. No round points scored and no Punishments handed out. If you have a round point already and your next turn you roll a 1 on the Dieabolus, you must remove a round point.

If you cannot complete a Punishment, you must give up one game point if you have it, or loose the next 2 turns and think about why your even playing this silly game in the first place.

If you roll a straight of any kind, do not take a punishemnt or score a round point. Re-roll only the Dieabolus and take your fate. Your fate is as follows: Roll a 1 and take a Punishment card. Roll a 6, score a point and pass the dice. Roll anything else, and lose that many turns then pass the dice.

If you roll 3 of a kind of the following numbers, 2,3,4 or 5. Re-roll all three dice and take your fate (do not keep rolling if you get a 6, score it and pass the dice). If you roll all 1’s, take a Punishemnt card. If you roll 666, you won the round. Score a Game point and draw a Decimate card and read it out loud. Everyone at the table must participate in the Decimation.

All cards are to be read silently unless it is a Decimate card or the Punishment wishes you to let everyone know what is going on. Sometimes its best not to tell people whats coming.

You cannot score more than 3 6’s. If you roll two 6’s, then on your next turn roll 2 more. You must forfeit your last roll and pass the dice. Only rolling 666 will trump this rule.

We recommend you print the cards on 80lb paper or higher to give it a more ridged feel. Color or mark the back of the Decimate cards to keep them seperate from the Punishment cards. Cut them out and play.

Breakdown of the dice.

   = Draw a Punishment

   =   cancel each other, pass the dice.

   =   cancel, score 1 round point for the extra  Pass the dice

Three of a Kind:

   = Draw a Punishment

   = Re-roll all dice take your fate*

   = Re-roll all dice take your fate*

   = Re-roll all dice take your fate*

   = Re-roll all dice take your fate*

   = Win the round, score a Game Point, Draw a Decimate card and pass the dice.

*Fate = take whatever comes up at face value. Normal rules apply.

Straights:

   = Re-roll the Dieabolus and take your fate*

   = Re-roll the Dieabolus and take your fate*

   = Re-roll the Dieabolus and take your fate*

   = Re-roll the Dieabolus and take your fate*

*Fate = If you roll a 1 Draw a Punishment, roll a 6 score the Round Point, roll anything else and lose that many turns.

 Split dice just mean either color rolled a 6, 3, 1 etc..

Example game play:

Myke, James and Jessica are sitting at the table. They all roll a dice to see who goes first and Jessica rolled the highest so she goes first.

On Jessica's first roll she rolls

She passes the dice to her left to Myke.

Myke rolls the dice. He rolls  He picks up the Dieabolus and rolls . He goes to his score pad for the round and scores 1 round point and passes the dice.

James takes the dice and rolls  James draws the first Punishment card. He picks it up and notices that its a read out loud card. “For the next 2 turns you must end everything you say with “You Shit”.

James “Crap. You Shit”

Myke “the bathroom is over there if you need to use it. :)”

Jessica picking up the dice trying not to laugh and rolls

James says “AHHHH you shit”, “Now lets see what awaits you shit”

Jessica picks up the punishment and she smiles and puts the card down.

Myke says, “What car.....”

Jessica quickly interrupts him and says “Are you going to roll the dice or ask questions sheesh”

James, “I wonder if sh.....”

Jessica, “We will have no more shit from you”

Myke picks up the dice laughing and rolls  “YES” he yells, “Round resets and I get a Game Point. What card did you pull Jessica?”

Jessica picks up the card and reads it out loud, “ You are so rude, interrupt everyone for the next two turns.”

hehe.

Myke snickers and says, “Pull a punishment” as he laughs with a evil grin...

Jessica grabs a punishment and reads it out loud, “Read out loud. Lose 1 turn and contiplate your life choices.”

“Oh man”.

James grabs the dice and rolls  He yells, “GAME POINT” and scores it on his sheet and passes the dice to Jessica and draws a Decimate card and reads it out loud. “Everyone must get up and dance like there is no tomorrow for 15 seconds. (including the reader of this card)”.

Everyone at the table jumps up and starts dancing. Myke yells out, “how will we know its been 15 seconds?”

James answers while getting his grove on “You count I guess, 6, 7, 8... 15”.. Every one sits down laughing.

This continues until someone scores 6 game points. Once someone accumulates three 6’s, the round resets, all punishemnts are void and the new round begins.

Please keep in mind the the following cards below are all in flux and may be updated at any time. We will announce on the forums when updates are made to this file.
